Fire Scars Nearly All Healed Again

It is gratifying to see the blackened fire scars in the business section nearly all healed.

Of all the buildings recently burned or damaged by fire, there is but one now lacking rebuilding. It is the Chandler property, one front of which faces on Main Street and the other front on 7th Street.

The Walker office building and the City Hall are finished, and by the end of this week, much of the new fixtures for occupation of the Imperial Barber Shop and the Terrell Grocery will be installed. There is yet some stucco work to be done on these fronts.

All the new work and repairs have been done under the supervision of Shelburne and Sons, Contractors.

More will likely be said in the Herald next week about the new business and the new features. Enough to say here that when a fire happens these days in old buildings, the result is always modernization.

BAPTIST CHURCH

September came in with a bang as far as our Sunday School attendance is concerned. That 317 last Sunday was the largest number reported in over two months. With this start, September should be our high attendance month of the year. We want to increase in attendance every Sunday during this month, and then on fifth Sunday, promotion day in our Sunday School, we want to reach the goal of 375. Can it be done? Sure! If we all work.

We were very happy to have Dr. Carl Rister of the History Department of Oklahoma University to be our guest speaker last Sunday night. He brought an interesting message on "Christianity in a New World." A large congregation heard him gladly.

The pastor will speak Sunday morning on the subject, "Standing Fast in the Lord." It is a timely subject, and you will want to hear it discussed. We are anxious for the night service to be well attended. The training Union begins at 7:15, and interest is picking up. Evening worship begins at 8:15. The pastor will speak on the subject, "Jude's Message Against a Modern Menace." This will be an exposition of a little book oftentimes overlooked. It has a real message for today, and we need to get this message.

"See you in Sunday School and Church Sunday."

—H. E. EAST, PASTOR.

McCaulley Oil Well Appears Good One

Just a few weeks ago drilling started on the J. L. Maberry farm for the third trial at getting a paying oil well. This is just a little over a mile out southwest of the McCaulley business section.

L. A. Young of Graham is the producer and a hard hunting scout after oil.

The well struck oil at 3296 feet, so reports have it. The grade of oil 43 gravity and the whole situation looks good for a lot of activity.

Oil has been found in some quantity every where in the McCaulley neighborhood, and it may be now the pay has been found.

Stonewall County Gets More Deep Tests For Oil Wells

Last Sunday afternoon the Herald man visited the Annie Smith-Shell deep test well located about 15 miles northwest of Hamlin, north of the Double Mt. Fork of the Brazos. At that time there was plenty of evidence of oil all around the grounds, on trees, in gullies, on hills, and everywhere (the area has been cleaned since and set for production).

This well is 6,060 feet deep, and already it has gushed nearly 4,000 barrels of fine oil. All they have to do is to open up the throttle and let her fly. It is a big producer and will later be pipelined to the Shell line just south of the well a few miles.

The company is also down about 5,800 feet in a test near Jayton. That is about 25 miles north.

NAZARENE CHURCH

We are endeavoring this week to be of some help to our community and entire city. We are holding Revival Services at 10 A. M. and 7:45 P. M. each day. We appreciate those who have been attending and invite others to attend any or all of these services.

Sunday School will open Sunday morning at 9:45. A big welcome and class awaits everybody. Sermon at 11:00 o'clock; subject, The Gospel of Youth. Especially are we interested in having the young people with us for this hour of worship. N.Y.P.S. meets at 7:15. Evening service at 7:45; subject, God's Plan and Man's Opportunity. This will be the closing service of the revival. Come worship with us at the church where you are always welcome.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR SEPTEMBER 15

On Sunday, September 15, Rev. J. C. Henson will speak at 11:00 o'clock. Rev. Henson was connected with the former college here and will be remembered by all of the old timers. At 7:45 on the same date, Rev. Bud Robinson (Uncle Bud) will be our guest speaker. Uncle Bud is one of the best known and most loved ministers in America, and if

SOUNDS FISHY AND THAT IS WHAT IT IS

Yes sir, this does sound "fishy", and why not? 10,000 more fish were brought up from the State Fish Hatchery at Cisco, Thursday, by L. A. Proctor, the fellow who carries "orphan fishes" about to find good luscious homes in people's City Lakes, etc.

This is the second bunch of various kinds of baby fish that the Cisco fish factory has brought to Hamlin recently.

Now in about two or three years maybe longer, more old guys will be sitting on the banks of our lakes waiting for those little hungry fishes to eat off their lines. Well, it is fishy hereabouts.

The many friends of Jimmy Dunlap will be glad to learn that he is back from his stay in Mineral Wells where he has been for two weeks.

Hamlin School Band Has Elected Officers

Last week the Hamlin Band met for the election of officers. The officers elected are as follows: president, Hope Cade; vice president, Ellis Benham; secretary and treasurer, Joyce Hudson; reporter, Charlotte Dillingham; and custodian, Milton Fletcher.

A decorating committee was appointed to make the band room more attractive. They have made some great improvements and have many more planned.

To take care of the new music, Billy Armstrong was appointed librarian with two assistants, Herbie Johnston and Jimmy Clements.

You have probably heard drums and marching feet this past month every morning, and you will be hearing them all through school. The band director, Mr. Clyde Smith, and the drum major, Paul Fowler, have really taken some kinks out of marching band. The majorettes for this year will be Ruby Herr and Marie Holland.

The beginners band has gotten on you have never seen or heard him, we urge you to come and be with us. Remember the date, September 15, J. C. Henson at 11:00 A. M. and Uncle Bud at 7:45 P. M.

DAN D. JONES, PASTOR

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. John W. Hendrix, Pastor

Do you attend Sunday School? Do you make a big effort to get your children to this school? The Sunday School has stood the test. It has proved itself to be one institution of abiding value to citizenship. 9:45 A. M. is the hour.

MORNING WORSHIP—10:50, invites you. It requests one hour of your time. In turn it offers you a period of fellowship in worship; the choir will lead you in some select hymns, and the pastor will deliver the sermon, using as subject, "The Story of a Great Love." We will all be out by high noon. To some people no Sabbath would be complete without this visit to the church. This is the most rewarding and most valuable habit one could possibly form.

EVENING WORSHIP comes on at 8 o'clock, fifteen minutes earlier. These hours of worship mark the beginning of the revival effort. At this hour Dr. C. A. Bickley will bring the message. And each day thereafter at 10 o'clock each morning, and each evening at 8 o'clock, he will preach. He is one of our very best pastor-evangelists. He has always been either a pastor or presiding elder, and has always been successful in holding revivals. He hereby knows our problems, both church and pastor. We can assuredly and safely follow his leadership.

LEAGUES both meet at 7:15, each in their places of worship. It is the plan for Mrs. Bickley to speak to the Young People. One would have to go a long way to find a better speaker than she. We take great pride in presenting Mrs. Bickley to the young people.

Miss Vicky Crow and Mrs. Marvin Massey returned Tuesday from a three weeks visit in San Antonio with their aunt, Mrs. C. L. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wright of Phoenix, Arizona, visited with their cousin, Mrs. V. R. Bond and husband the past week end.

its feet and is now playing some real music. There will be many more band members to enroll at the first of school.

Be sure and watch for your band at the first ball game when Hamlin Pied Pipers meet Lueders on Hamlin's field for the first game of football season.

Here is guessing that this September time finds Hamlin and all the surrounding country the most beautiful in its history.

Rains keep coming, grass and crops keep growing and the whole landscape is fresh as spring time. All this shows what rain water means to the beauty and prosperity of this West Texas country.

Heavy rains visited this section again this week. The good earth is filled with moisture and it looks like a real wheat fall. That means a green winter, too, and maybe a golden harvest in 1941.

Hamlin yards and lawns are more beautiful than ever before. And if Hamlin people had the civic pride they should possess, every ugly, dirty vacant lot, and filthy corner would bloom like a flower garden in times like we now see. Hamlin needs a Civic Club with at least one member from each occupied block in town. There is no limit to what they could accomplish to make an unattractive place look charming and clean. This idea is spontaneously dropped, and here's hoping it will bear flowering fruits. "Water, will, wim and wigor," will work wonders.

Gilbert Piano Studios Opening Monday

Miss Edwina Gilbert announces the opening of her piano studios on Monday, September 9. She will add three new features to her work: Progressive Series, State Affiliated Credit in the school, and beginner's class work at reduced prices.

FURTHER ANNOUNCEMENT

Miss Edwina Gilbert has as her guest this week, Miss Winnifred Alvis of St. Louis, Mo., State Organizer of Progressive Series, which is a planned education in music, teaching theory and ear training in correlation with piano. Miss Alvis will meet the patrons and pupils of Miss Gilbert on Friday at 8:00 P. M. at the Methodist church. This is an open meeting and the public is cordially invited.

Joyce and Marceline Conner who have been spending the summer with their father, Bryant Conner, left Sunday night for their home in Houston where they will enter school.

17 Cotton Varieties On "Mose Jones" Farm

E. A. Miller, Extension Service Agronomist, from A. and M. College, will be in Jones county Friday, Sept. 6th to discuss diseases, varieties, and improvement of wheat, oats, grain sorghums and cotton.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 o'clock in the district court room in Anson. We will go from there to the "Mose Jones" farm where you will see seventeen different varieties of cotton growing. Each row will have a marker designating the variety of cotton. This is the second year that this variety test has been carried on in Jones county. The results of last year's crop will be available.

In the afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, the club boys and as many adults as desire, will meet back in the district court room in Anson and discuss cotton plants and production, and combings will be made.

This is a most important day, and you should make an effort to attend.

Very truly yours,

FLOYD LYNCH
Jones County Agr. Agent

"Mose Jones Farm"—Where is it? Floyd, evidently you have been sending out some cards. All this week we meet farmers and they ask us "Where is the Mose Jones farm?" Heeded if we know. Friday is Sept. 6, and 100 farmers should phone you collect to ask "Where's the Mose Jones farm?" We thought for a while the question was a modern "gag".

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

THAT

Personalities

What certain prominent men do and say affects the general mass of people of a nation, especially in a free-thinking country like this great United States of ours.

FOR EXAMPLE, there is our own Texas Jack Garner, Vice President of the United States. How do the people of Texas, and of the United States feel about the way he is acting? As far as his "talking" is concerned, that has long ago been considered "passe".

What do YOU really know about our own Texas Jack Garner? Well, let's see. He was elected congressman in 1903 and served till 1933 without ever making a major speech. Coolidge was a chatter-box as compared to Jack. Besides being Congressman so long he was Speaker of the House and Vice President for (what looks like) 8 years. Jack adjourned his Senate last July as a candidate for president and went to his home "down in Texas". There is still momentous work to be done in the Senate and the Vice President has never returned to finish out what most of us have been thinking was a great national career.

Again we ask "What do the people of Texas and the United States think of how our Vice President is acting?" It would seem he is playing the part of a spoiled over-fed boy. No member of the Senate can fill his place as a substitute, however capable he may be. The President-protem of the Senate is just not what the people expect. Mr. Garner, don't you feel that you have let down, leaving the impression that you are pouting because you did not get the nomination for President. At least you could talk one way or the other.

—T&T—

NOW MR. WILKIE: How many ever heard of one Wendell L. Wilkie before he was mentioned for President? Maybe a few hundred thousand industrialists and stockholders of utilities corporations. He may be the greatest chap in America (till he gets elected, then he will become the demon of the nation, according to politics) but when he begins "to act, to talk" somehow the leaves begin to turn.

Now let's see one page from Wilkie's book. He must look for some straw to oppose somebody or else he can't be elected. The most fertile "opposing" ground now available is that about the Conscription bill. The Senate in its wisdom and efforts to prepare this nation for its defense, says that men must be trained, and that all men of certain age should be selected regardless of position, wealth, or what-not. Mr. Wilkie agrees to that. But when the Senate tacked on a feature that says, "Now if an industrial concern refuses to co-operate in the national defense, this nation will conscript the plant of the enterprise, or the (whatever it may be). Up jumps Mr. Wilkie and says "that's all wrong". So the mass of people begin to ask, "Is it wrong or unfair to conscript a million or billion dollar concern for national defense, when the, maybe foreign dominated concern refuses to co-operate in the same kind of defense that our boys must take part in, whether or not the boys have a loss or a gain?" Mr. Wilkie has a funny way of looking at dollars, acres, steel, etc. He is an "industrialist, a big business man" who would leave the impression that it is o k to pull men out and make them do things for defense but when it comes to factories that dare not co-operate, let's not bother them. Yes sir, when an important man speaks or acts it stirs the mass of people in the nation.

In the first place, Mr. Wilkie, if an industry refuses to help in our defense, public sentiment will do the trick, just like it will to the individual who fights the peace-time draft. As long as public sentiment is awake in this nation no one need fear the future. Right now there is no excuse for partisan quibbling.

—T&T—

THE VOICE OF Mr. Roosevelt was again ringing out over the air last Monday. Ringing with that clear, buoyant, encouraging spirit that is so much needed these days to keep a free people free. He spoke from the environs of the many dams along the age-old uncontrolled Tennessee River, where once the soil and the timber was so valuable, where yet billions of resources remain, where for a hundred years private capital was unable to do what a great nation is now accomplishing. The investment is not all loss. In time the refund will come, in fact, and in renewed national wealth and strength. Whatever gives comfort, income and increased values to six or seven states should be an asset to the whole nation. Is conserved soil, flood prevention and the harnessing of millions of horsepower to do the labor of hundreds of thousands of rural people worth while and worth the dollars expended?

—T&T—

IT IS SAID that there are about 130 million people in the United States. It is also estimated by some that there are about 10 million unemployed people in this country. Now let's see about that. Pick out 130 people in any community and it will be remarkable if you find only 10 who have no employment. In fact, you will find more than 10 who do not want employment. Generally there are from 10 to 25 persons in every 130 who had rather not do anything but frisk a living out of the other balance, and at the same time criticize and raise all kinds of hell because they do not get more and more.

Sometimes we hear someone trying to blame somebody for the number of unemployed. Before we get anywhere we have got to quit worrying about the unemployed and let them do the worrying. It is similar to a case where a person is a bit sick. Pamper him, feed him, wait upon him, pet him and watch him keep on being sick. What this nation MUST finally do is to furnish or assist desiring people to a way of living by their own hands.

—T&T—

IT IS SAID that in every quarter of the globe, in every nation, people have a longing to come to the United States, especially the poorer oppressed ones. There are plenty of reasons why, too. But right here in this land we have thousands who frown and complain when in fact they possess all the good things the rest of the world longs for, and thinks about. To make a fellow realize what he has enjoyed let that which he has been accustomed to be taken away and have to live as others in other lands do. What we have is worth fighting for but at the same time there is always room for improvement. Great industries, great this and great that, in many lines is what this nation is noted for, but the greatest thing we have is the individual rights and enjoyments possessed by even the poorest.

—T&T—

GRATITUDE is the most near divine trait the human heart possesses. To never express such a feeling is to crush that highest of all human gifts and develop in one's heart an animal attitude that leads to depression and ruin. It is Holy to feel grateful and helpful to express that feeling. A completely ungrateful person may not exist and if there is one he is a dangerous creature, not much kin to man.

—T&T—

LET US BE THANKFUL that in this country we have all we can eat, can sleep all the time we can spare and go about our business without fear of death from the skies, or of being bossed by some heartless fool bloated with the power of life and death. Yes, be grateful for all this and let's keep it.

Mrs. G. W. Calvert who had been in the Abilene hospital three weeks, was returned to the home of her son Kelley in South Hamlin Sunday. She is recovering from an operation and is reported doing fine.

They said 'Johnnie is smart as a whip' —but he made poor grades

Maybe your child is like that—"smart as a whip," but, for some reason, doesn't get good grades. If so—well, now that school is starting again, you might do something about it. Suppose you try this:

Fix him up a study table and give him a lamp of his own.

You may find the result amazing. Many children, unknowingly, suffer from poor eyesight. Unless they have proper light for studying, they sometimes lack interest and enthusiasm for school work. . . Former Hamlin Girl Married In Chanute, Kansas

The following is taken from a Chanute, Kansas, paper:

The marriage of Miss Virginia Mae Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wells, of Chanute, Kans., and Clarence E. Dawson, of Cleveland, Ohio, son of Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Dawson, 618 South Roberts, took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Christian church with Rev. M. B. Pringle, pastor, officiating.

The church was decorated with fern and garden flowers. Mrs. Roy Noblitt, organist, played as the prelude, "Prayer from Reneize." Miss Wanda Wilson, Oklahoma City, pianist, accompanied William F. Hubbard, vocalist, also of Oklahoma City, as he sang, "I Love Thee," Greig, and "Because" by Greig.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon dress of Notre Dame blue with a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Attendants of the bride were Miss Phyllis Hanson of Chanute, Kans., and Miss Phyllis Wells, sister of the bride. Miss Hanson wore a dusty rose alpaca with a corsage of orchid gladioli and Miss Wells wore a navy blue alpaca with salmon pink gladioli for her corsage.

William W. Russell of Chanute was best man while O. L. Smith, also of Chanute, served as usher.

After the wedding Dr. and Mrs. Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wells were hosts at a reception at the Dawson home.

The bride was graduated from Hamlin, Texas, high school and attended Chanute Junior college. Mr. Dawson was graduated from Chanute Junior college. The young couple will make their home at 3907 Prospect avenue, in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Dawson is employed at the Sealtest company.

POISONING THE BOLL WORMS

Cotton raisers who thoroughly understand the habits and characteristics of boll worms can easily control them. The boll worm miller which lays about 800 eggs deposits them around the tender growth in the top of the cotton plants. The eggs are about the size of a large grain of sand, pearly white in color and is slightly oblong in shape. The eggs hatch in 3 to 4 days. The small worms feed on the tender foliage in the top of the stalk until they are about seven days old. It is in this stage that they are easily poisoned. Calcium arsenate and paris green mixture (commercially mixed) is most effective against the boll worm, however, calcium arsenate alone has been successfully used. Five to seven pounds of the poison dust should be applied to the acre every five to seven days. Two to five applications may be necessary to completely control the boll worm depending on the time of the season and weather conditions.

Way "Build-up" Helps Will Interest Women

The cause of a woman's periodic suffering from headache, irritability, cramp-like pain, may be functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, a condition that is often helped by CARDUI.

Principal way CARDUI helps is by stimulating appetite and the flow of gastric juices. Thus it may aid digestion; help build up a woman's strength, energy and nerve-force; so increase physical resistance to periodic discomfort.

It also helps reduce periodic distress for many who take it a few days before and during "the time." Your confidence in CARDUI is invited by its 50 years of popularity.

POT SHOTS FROM M'CAULLEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

Mrs. Tom Nall and son Charles, Misses Fannie and Annie Galloway have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Galloway of Lamesa.

Walter Faulkenberry is employed as salesman for a candy co. He says business looks as if it is going to be good this fall in West Texas.

Oh yes, we told you so! McCaulley does have an oil well and a good one. It was drilled in Saturday morning about 1 A. M. and the strangers are drifting into town. We may have been without oil and crops for a long time but McCaulley is on the map from now on.

Tip Turner and family, A. L. Gregh and wife, Melba McKinney, Sherman Houghton and family, all former residents of Franklin county attended the Franklin county reunion at Big Spring last Sunday. This is an annual affair and all former Franklin citizens are invited every year for a get-together and a big feed.

Mrs. Bill Pickron's mother is here visiting in the Pickron home.

McCaulley needs a hotel. There are several oil field workers looking for rooms, and apartments are as scarce as hen's teeth around here.

We have just finished reading the last week's issue of the Jayton Chronicle. It says on the front page the following: "The only paper in the whole wide world that cares a continental darn about Jayton and Kent County". We hope the editors of other papers will be so kind to give Jayton and Kent County a writeup and make the folks there feel like we think of them once in a while. In fact, I have a very tender spot deep down for old Kent and Jayton as that's where I discovered America.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hodnett and family whose home is in Arkansas, are visiting in the homes of relatives here and at Neinda. Hodnett is a brother to Mrs. S. E. Miers, Mrs. Ernest Gregg, Mrs. F. W. Poe and Clyde Hodnett.

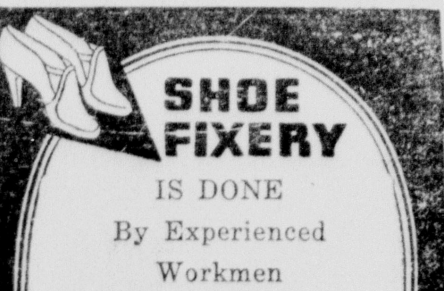

The school bus drivers are repairing the school busses and getting ready to start hauling the school kids. The McCaulley school opens for business next Monday, Sept. 9th.

L. A. Long, independent oil operator, is a frequent visitor in McCaulley these days. Mr. Long has extensive holdings in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miers are on a vacation. They are visiting in Oklahoma and Arkansas.

S. A. Johnson and family, formerly of McCaulley, and now of Hamlin, were visitors in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Melvin Henderson last Sunday.
